Lost Foundations.

Oh, the unused foundations of character which line our human street and make the city of life so tragical. Oh, the bodily vigor which has never done any strong work for God or man!—Phillips Brooks.

THE BIG FOUR.

(1) You are too old for such amusement. (2) No. (3) Girls younger than 18 should be chaperoned when they go out at night. (4) A first-class vaudeville show is all right. Dear Mrs. Thompson: Can you tell me what will stop my hair from coming out? It started to come out about ten weeks ago. My scalp got very sore before it started to fall. Now I can get a big combful every time I comb my hair. I never run my hair and very seldom curl it. E. M. P.

Wash the hair in pure castile soap melted in hot water. Massage, after drying, with vaseline. Move the fingers from the wrists when loosening the scalp from the head. This is about the only way to stop the hair from falling. Dandruff is probably clogging the pores and preventing the circulation of the blood. Use more massage than grease and do not allow the vaseline to spread over the hair, as it collects dust and makes the hair dull and soiled-looking. Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are two girl friends 15 and 16 years old. Is it proper for us to allow boy friends to take us home from entertainments at night when we have to go home by ourselves at 10 o'clock? LIZZIE AND BILLY.

You should not go to an entertainment at night unless you are accompanied by an older person. Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am 14 years old. I was visiting last week and I got acquainted with a young man. Would it be all right for me to drop him a card? (2) Am I too young to wear skirts and a waist? I am in the seventh grade. BABY. (1) No, it would not. (2) Grammar school girls look better in dresses than in waists and skirts.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are four girls between 16 and 20. (1) Do you think it wrong for girls of our age to catch boys? (2) Is it proper for us to go on bob rides with boys without a chaperone? (3) Do you think it is all right for us to go coasting at night with boys? (4) Do you think some of the vaudeville programs are all right for girls to go to with boys? THE BIG FOUR. (1) You are too old for such amusement. (2) No. (3) Girls younger than 18 should

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS. MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON. Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am 16 years old and am considered very pretty by my friends and other people, although I do not think so myself. When I am out with girls they all seem to prefer my company. I have one friend I have been going with for two years and I like her very much and I would not like to lose her friendships. She has a very jealous disposition when we are out with other girls, but when I am out with her alone she is all right. One night four of us girls went out together and the next morning she said that I treated her coolly. I told her that I did not want to, because I want to treat everyone alike. I have had many boys ask to take me out, but I have always refused because nobody asked to take her. I do not know whether I am doing right by denying myself these pleasures. Please advise me what to do. (2) Is a working girl of 16 compelled to attend continuation school? (3) I have the least signs of a goiter. What can I do to prevent it from getting bigger? BLONDE. (1) You will never get any thanks from your friend for being so considerate of her. Treat her as well as you do the other girls and better if you want to, since you like her so well, but don't sacrifice your own pleasure when doing so will not benefit her. (2) No. (3) Consult a doctor at once. A goiter is serious. Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are four girls between 16 and 20. (1) Do you think it wrong for girls of our age to catch boys? (2) Is it proper for us to go on bob rides with boys without a chaperone? (3) Do you think it is all right for us to go coasting at night with boys? HOUSEHOLD HINTS

HAT PIN HOLDER. Before discarding the empty talcum powder box with the perforated top see what a nice hatpin holder it will make. The perforations in the top will accommodate five or six pins. Cover the box with a pretty striped or flowered ribbon. HALL RUNNER. A good way to utilize plain green filling and lining paper formerly used for outlining room size rugs is by making a hall runner. Cut filling the desired length and fold lengthwise. Cut paper the length of filling when doubled and place between. Baste together firmly and stitch on sewing machine all the way around through both filling and paper about one-half inch from outer edge, using a long loose stitch. The result will be a serviceable and good looking hall runner which will not curl up and can be used on either side. SANDWICHES. Cottage Cheese Fillings—First, take cottage cheese mixed with pepper, salt and cream; chop onions fine and mix with mayonnaise dressing. Makes a fine filling. Another way to use cottage cheese: Use mixed cheese with cream, salt pepper, pimientos and chopped English walnuts. Mix with mayonnaise dressing, place on lettuce leaf. Use one slice of brown bread and one slice of white bread. SALADS. Tomato With Onion—Take a tomato (not overripe), cut into thin slices as you would a cucumber. Cut a small onion as fine as you can and sprinkle all over tomato slices. Sprinkle over with salt and pepper, add vinegar and serve. Water Cress Salad—Select fresh, crisp, well-cleaned cress; cut fine. Mix with the following: Mix very slowly one-half teaspoon each of salt and dry mustard, one teaspoon sugar with well beaten yolks of two eggs. Then gradually, four tablespoons melted butter. Then, as gradually, add six tablespoons vinegar. Stir smooth and cook in double boiler until thick. Then add whites of two eggs. When cold add one small cup whipped cream. With this salad should be served cheese balls, for which this is the recipe: Grate one cup cheese and put into it the whipped white of one egg. Make into small balls and plunge into smoking fat. THE TABLE. Suet Soup—Get one pound nice fresh suet, run it through meat chopper, put one cup of it in soup kettle with some water, let boil while preparing the vegetables. Add four small turnips, three onions, one-fourth head cabbage, four potatoes (all cut fine—slice the potatoes); grate one carrot fine on the grater (much depends on this, as the carrot gives to the soup a richness and flavor that cannot be obtained unless you grate it). When well done add about two tablespoons flour thickening, unless you prefer it without. Try this and you will want to try it again. Pork Pudding—Take roast pork you have left over, cut into inch squares (about a cupful) and put into shallow buttered pudding dish. Then make a batter of one pint milk, two eggs, four heaping tablespoons flour, pinch of salt, small piece of butter; mix all together and beat well 10 minutes. Then pour over pork and bake till a nice golden brown. This is also delicious using pork sausages instead of the pork, and is "something different." Oysters in Baking Dish—Beat in egg with two tablespoons cold water, roll oysters in this and then in crumbs and place close together in baking dish. Season with salt and pepper, dot with butter and cut over all a few nice white leaves of celery tops. Put in oven until brown. Do not put lid on baking dish. Porcupine Apples—Cook six apples in syrup until tender, but not broken. Place on a dish and to one cup of syrup add one tablespoon of granulated gelatine. Pour over apples and when ready to serve and jelly is set decorate with whipped cream and bits of red jelly—use this as a sweet entree. Sausage Crullers—Use your own favorite cruller recipe and make a little softer than usual. Turn dough out on a floured board into a roll, cut off finger lengths and drop into hot fat. They come out looking like sausages. Belmont Salad—In a bed of lettuce arrange sections of canned beef. Between two sections put chopped beet; in center of pear put cooked bits of celery that have been marinated in boiled cream salad dressing. Use a sprinkling of nuts. Mayonnaise dressing may be used in addition to the marinated. Muffins—Two cups of flour, one-half teaspoon of salt, four teaspoons of baking powder, two tablespoons butter, sugar, two tablespoons melted butter, one cup milk, one egg; sift together the dry ingredients; beat the egg, add the milk and melted butter; mix into the dry ingredients; fill and bake in a moderate oven for 20 minutes. Rice With Pimientos—Two and a half cups of cold boiled rice, one can of tomatoes, one small can pimientos, one teaspoon of sugar, one minced onion, two teaspoons of salt, pepper, two tablespoons butter, one-half cup dry bread crumbs; add salt, pepper, sugar and onion to the tomatoes; spread a layer of tomatoes in a buttered baking dish, then a layer of rice and sprinkle some of the pimientos, chopped; dot with a little butter; repeat until the dish is filled; sprinkle the top with bread crumbs mixed with a tablespoon of the butter. Bake about forty-five minutes in a moderate oven. Tomato Bisque—Boil together 15 minutes one can of tomatoes, a small sliced onion, the tops and waste parts of a stalk of celery and one clove. Press through a sieve when well cooked. In a sauce pan melt a tablespoon of butter and stir in one tablespoon of cornstarch. When smooth add a pint of rich milk or cream. Season with salt and cayenne. Just before ready to serve add the hot strained tomato and stir until evenly mixed. Serve with salted wafers.
